Has the Word of God Failed?

Mike Bullmore

1. Are there any of the foundational “planks” you have a hard time affirming?

- God is God.
- God is good.
- There is a correspondence between God’s sense of good and our sense of good.
- God is beyond us.

2. What stands out for you more in Romans 9, the challenging questions or the truth about the amazing, undeserved mercy of God (vv.15, 16,23)?

3. What does the thought of personally experiencing the glory of God (v. 23) produce in you? Does that awaken some deep longing in you? Something you sense you were made for? Do your best to put that into words.

4. How do you react to knowing that God intends to extend his mercy to Jews and Gentiles, in fact to people from every tribe and tongue and nation? How does that fact reveal God’s great glory?
